

Inculcate truth and become an instrument for God's revelation
(Dadiji 20-02-2025)

Supremely beloved Avyakt Image Mother, Father, BapDada's deeply beloved instrument teachers, brothers and sisters of this land and abroad who are the decoration of the Brahmin clan, ones who have become instruments for God's revelation through the culture of Brahmin life, please accept love-filled sweet remembrance.

In the month of February, all of you created a huge buzz in service to reveal Shiv Baba. Everyone held many programmes with a lot of love to celebrate Trimurti Shiva Jayanti. We continue to receive wonderful news from everyone. Many, many blessings to everyone from BapDada and the Madhuban family.

Baba says: Children, you have to reveal the truth with a lot of manners and therefore let your words be full of love, sweetness and greatness. Let there be truth, but let there also be humility. Be fearless and speak with authority, but by staying within the codes of conduct, show the wonders of the balance of both authority and humility. This is the means of the Father's revelation, because you children are very, very royal. Your speaking, way of seeing, walking, eating, drinking, getting up and sitting – let truth and manners be seen in every action. The seed of our good wishes and pure feelings is to have the consciousness of being an instrument and having humility. Some say "I always speak the truth", but if there isn't any divinity in your actions, then others will not feel the truth to be the truth. Therefore, inculcate the power of truth with divinity. No matter what you have to tolerate, do not be afraid. Truth will automatically be revealed at the right time. BapDada loves the honest heart of the children, because those who have honesty are also clean. They are clean and clear. However, some children have made anger, the power of ignorance their sanskar very well and they also use that sanskar every now and then, and then ask for forgiveness. Baba now wants His children to make every virtue and every point of knowledge their sanskar and so manners will automatically be developed. Just as they say about the Father "God is truth", in the same way, every thought and every word of you children must be the truth - then it can be said "The versions of truth of the Maharaj". So, tell me, my sweet brothers and sisters, you have inculcated such truth, have you not?

Now, the pure festival of Holi is coming close. Therefore, whatever has happened, it has already happened. Now, all of us belong to sweet Baba, so put a full stop to the past and become completely pure and celebrate the true Holi. While celebrating Holi of the meeting of elevated sanskars, colour one another with the colour of your elevated company. Many, many greetings from the heart to all of you for the pure festival that is filled with such spiritual significance. Now, in Madhuban, there is a very special sparkle of the avyakt meeting. Thousands of Baba's children from this land and abroad have come to our home, Madhuban, and are being very well refreshed. The pure and powerful atmosphere here, the land of Father Brahma's tapasya, the land of his divine activities and his field of action, is giving everyone special experiences. Double foreign brothers and sisters come to Madhuban in the month of February especially to make plans for the future service. Achcha.

I am sure all of you are enjoying good health. Lots of love and remembrance to all.

In Godly service,

B.K. Ratanmohini

Adopt the culture of truth and good manners

- 1) The number one culture of the Brahmin family is that of truth and good manners. This Brahmin culture should be visible on everyone's face and in their behaviour. Every Brahmin should smile whilst in contact with others. No matter what someone is like, never let go of your Brahmin culture and you will easily become an instrument for God's revelation.
- 2) The sign of truth is having good manners. When you are truthful and have the power of truth, you will never stop having good manners. You may have to prove the truth, but do this with good manners. By trying to prove that something is true whilst letting go of your good manners, you will be unable to prove it. The sign of a lack of good manners is stubbornness and the sign of good manners is humility. Those who do prove the truth will constantly remain humble and will always interact with good manners with everyone.
- 3) Those who try to prove that something is true by becoming forceful definitely have something not quite honest merged within them. The language of many children has become such that they say: "I really am speaking the honest truth. I am speaking 100% truth." However, there should be no need to prove the truth. Truth is like the sun; it cannot be hidden. No matter how many screens are put in front of you, your light of truth cannot be hidden. Words and behaviour based on decency definitely bring success
- 4) If you see or hear something untruthful, do not spread that falsehood into the atmosphere. Many say, "That's a sin, and I can't bear to see anyone committing that sin." However, to spread things that are untrue into the atmosphere is also a sin. You wouldn't spread something you see or hear like this in your lokik family. You would hear it with your ears and hide it in your heart. It is also a trace of sin for someone here to spread anything wasteful around. Such small sins finish the experience of the flying stage. Therefore, understand the deep philosophy of karma and adopt the power of truth in its true form.
- 5) The basis of God's revelation is truth. Revelation will only take place through the truth. One is the truth of your own stage, the second is the truth of service. The basis of truth is cleanliness and fearlessness. On the basis of the inculcation of both of these, you can become an instrument to reveal God through the truth. If there is any type of uncleanness, that is, if there is even the slightest lack of truth or cleanliness, there cannot be success in the task of revelation.
- 6) Let there be love and also sweetness and so greatness in your words. Let there be truth in them, but also let there be humility in your form. Be fearless and speak with authority, but let your words be within the code of conduct. Let there be a balance of the two. Where there is a balance, you can see wonders and those words are not harsh, they sound sweet. So, now show the wonder of a balance of authority and humility. This is the way to reveal the Father.
- 7) You Brahmin children are very royal. Let others experience your good manners and truthfulness from your face and behaviour. It is said that royal souls are goddesses of good manners. The way they speak, regard others, walk, eat and drink and every action they perform reveals their natural good manners and truthfulness. It should not be that you set out to prove the truth but don't have any manners. This cannot be right.
- 8) Those who are humble will be able to work for the construction of the new world. To consider oneself an instrument and remain humble is the seed of good wishes and pure feelings. Instead of expecting any limited respect, remain humble. Now inculcate new sanskars of good manners and truth into your life. If anger or irritation emerges against your will, say, "My Baba", from your heart and you will receive extra help.
- 9) Speak about any aspect of knowledge with authority as well as with truth and manners, not with hesitation. In order to bring about revelation, first of all reveal yourself. Be fearless. Let there be fewer words in your lectures, but let them be so powerful and filled with the Father's introduction and His love that the magnet of love pulls souls to God.
- 10) Nowadays, some children speak a special language. They say that they can't bear to see or hear anything false. That is why, when they see or hear something untrue, they become very forceful. However, if the other person is false, but you become forceful on seeing that falseness, then your force too is untrue. In order to finish any type of falsehood, imbibe the power of truth within yourself.

- 11) Now reveal the truth on the basis of cleanliness and fearlessness. The authority of truth through your lips will automatically reveal the Father. Now transform the land with a Godly bomb. The easy way to do this is constantly to have the awareness of the chant of BapDada on your lips and in your mind, just as you would chant His name whilst turning the beads of a rosary. Let everyone's chant be "My Baba". Let there be this constant chant in your thoughts, words and actions. Let this be the mantra that is constantly chanted. When this mantra becomes the constant mantra, all situations will automatically end.
- 12) Just as the belief of all the different religions is that God is One, in the same way, when the sound spreads that there is just one true knowledge of God, that is, there is just the one path, then the wandering of souls to the many types of small supports will end. People now think that this too is one of the paths, that it is a good path. However, ultimately, there is only the one introduction of the one Father and only the one path. Spread the wave of this introduction of the Truth and the power of this true knowledge, and all souls will then be able to take support under the flag of revelation.
- 13) You have many very good methods and you also have explanations to clarify all the deep points of this knowledge. Each point can be clarified in a logical way. You have your own authority. These are not things of your own mind or your imagination. These are real. They are your experience. You are an authority of experience, an authority of this knowledge, an authority of truth. You are so many authorities. So, use both your authority and your love together.
- 14) Become an embodiment of the power of truth and speak and see with intoxication. We are followers of the Almighty Government. By having this awareness, make anything wrong right. We have to reveal the truth, not hide it, but we have to do this with manners. Have the intoxication that you are the Shaktis of Shiva. When the Shaktis have courage, the Almighty Authority helps.
- 15) Let your form be the same as your words. Let your words be clear and filled with love, humility and sweetness. Let them also be filled with truth. However, let there also be humility in your form. You will be able to reveal the Father through this form. Remain fearless but let your words be within the code of conduct, then people won't find your words harsh, but sweet.
- 16) Honest children who have honest hearts, are able to become a point within a second and remember the Father, the Point, because of the greatness of their honesty. Those with honest hearts please the Lord, and because of receiving special blessings from the Father, they are able to keep their heads yuktiyukt (using the right methods) and carry out any task accurately according to the time. This is because they have pleased the Father, the Intellect of the Wise. Those who have pleased God are automatically raazyukt (knowing all secrets) and yuktiyukt.
- 17) Truth is recognised by divinity being experienced in your thoughts, words, actions, relationships and connections. When someone says, "I always speak the truth", but does not have divinity in his words or actions, others will not feel that truth to be the truth. Therefore, imbibe divinity with the power of truth. No matter what you have to tolerate, do not be afraid. Truth is automatically proved according to the time.
- 18) Complete truth is based on purity. If there is no purity, there cannot be constant truth. Impurity is not just the vice of lust, for it also has companions. So, to be greatly pure means that there should be no name or trace of impurity for only then can you become an instrument for God's revelation.
- 19) Let people experience your inner cleanliness and truth in your getting up, sitting down, speaking and in doing service, for only then will you be able to become instruments for God's revelation. For this, let the light of purity be constantly lit. Do not have the slightest upheaval. The more the light of purity is steady, the more easily people will be able to recognise the Father.
- 20) Impurity is not just causing someone sorrow or committing sin, but purity is to experience truth and cleanliness within yourself with discipline. Just as there is the phrase: "The boat of truth will not sink, even though it may rock" - so, the boat of faith is truth and honesty which may rock, but will not sink. Therefore, with the courage of truth, become an instrument for God's revelation.
- 21) The sign of the power of truth is fearlessness. It is said: "When there is truth, the soul dances." That is, because those who have the power of truth are constantly carefree and fearless, they continue to dance in happiness. When your sanskars and thoughts are weak, that weakness will bring about upheaval in your mind. Therefore, first of all, sacrifice your subtle weaknesses into the imperishable yagya of Rudra.

- 22) Never try to prove the truth by letting go of your manners. The sign of good manners is humility. This humility easily enables you to carry out this renewal. Unless you become humble, you cannot bring about renewal. The power of this knowledge is peace and love. You have made anger, the power of ignorance, your sanskar very well and also you continue to use it and you then also continue to ask for forgiveness. In the same way, now make every virtue and every point of this knowledge your sanskar and you will continue to develop good manners.
- 23) It is said of the Father, “God is the Truth” and the Father loves the truth. The Lord is pleased with an honest heart. In the serviceable children who are seated on the heart throne, in their relationships and connections, in their every thought and word, honesty and cleanliness will be visible. Their every thought and every word will be the truth.
- 24) Those who are royal souls with the personality of purity are called goddesses of manners. They cannot have any impurity of the vice of anger. If there is the slightest subtle form of anger in the form of jealousy, conflict or dislike, that too is a fire which burns inside you. Externally, you don’t become red or yellow, but you become dark and dirty. So, finish that ugliness and become honest and clean.
- 25) To discern purity is to experience divinity in your thoughts, words, actions, relationships and connections. Some say: “I always speak the truth”, but if there isn’t any divinity in their words and actions, others will not feel anything true in their truth. Therefore, imbibe divinity with the power of truth. No matter what you have to tolerate, do not be afraid. Truth will automatically be revealed according to the time.
- 26) The Father loves truth the most. This is why it is said in devotion: God is the truth. The most loved thing is the truth because those who are truthful are clean: they remain clean and clear. So, never let go of the speciality of being truthful. The power of truth works like a lift.
- 27) When the Shaktis have courage, the Almighty Authority definitely helps. Lionesses are never afraid of anyone; they are fearless. They don’t even have any fear of not knowing what is going to happen. Become an embodiment of the power of truth, and speak with intoxication and look at everything with that intoxication. “We are followers of the Almighty Government”. Have this awareness and make accurate whatever is inaccurate. The truth has to be revealed and not hidden, but together with sweetness, manners are also needed in your words.
- 28) Now, let there be something new in the form of your lectures. You have given many lectures on world peace, but now prove what the power of spiritual knowledge is and who its source is. Let people now understand that God’s task is taking place. People say that the women are doing very good work - according to the time, this field also had to be prepared. However, just as it is said, “Father shows son”, in the same way, when “son shows Father”, the flag of revelation will be hoisted.
- 29) Some children say: Generally, I don’t get angry, but when someone tells lies, I do then get very angry. If that person told you lies and you spoke with anger, which one of you is right? Many of you are very clever and say that it’s not that they get angry, it’s just that their voice is loud or sharp. Since you are able to control the volume of something with instruments of science, are you not able to control your own voice (volume and tone) with the power of silence?
- 30) Some children may think that to become angry is not a vice. They think it is weapon and not a vice. However, anger is a very great enemy of an enlightened soul. Your anger is revealed when you come into contact or connection with other souls. When your anger is seen, the Father’s name is greatly defamed. Those who gossip would sarcastically say, “Now we have seen enlightened souls!” Therefore, now finish all traces of anger. Interact with others with very good manners.
- 31) Everyone has begun to understand that there is “the One”, but this is the One and that this is the only One – now plough the field of this upheaval. They have now reached the stage of saying that there are others too, and there is also this One, but now shoot such an arrow, so that they say, “This is the only One.” The field is ready and will continue to be ready, but this new knowledge is the foundation, the newness and the seed. They have the experience that this is altruistic love and spiritual love, but now, along with love, reveal that you are souls who have the authority of knowledge, the authority of true knowledge, then revelation will take place.
